

WHAT ~~NOT~~ TO BRING OR SEND TO CAMP

- Cell phones or two-way radios
- Digital cameras
- Computers
- Personal DVD players
- Video iPods
- DVD's
- Food, Beverages, Candy or gum
- Money
- Silly string
- Water balloons
- Permanent markers
- Aerosol bug repellent
- Fireworks
- Knives
- Expensive jewelry
- Expensive clothing
- Parental-advisory music or video games
- Shelf or drawer unit for storing clothing
- Aerosol hair dye/color
- Any other item that your good judgment tells you has the potential to cause a mess or property damage in a camp setting

A note about electronics: We want the girls to be able to listen to appropriate music in the cabin. We know that electronic MP3 devices and personal game players have a place at rest hour. We are asking that you not send personal DVD players or bring movies for electronic devices such as PSP and that you take all videos off of your MP3 players. In addition, any device with internet access or the ability to chat across the room, such as I-touch or Nintendo DS, is also prohibited. It is impossible for us to keep up with all of the technology that comes out, but suffice it to say that we want you to have the ability to listen to music and play a personal game, but anything else is not allowed. Camp is a great time to get away from the world of technology.

Please understand that it is not possible for us to list every item that may create a problem or has the potential to cause property damage. The final decision about the suitability of an item lies with the director.